Starting a business - GATTAquant

Abstract:

Are you a PhD student or Postdoc?

Are you interested in starting your own business and in entrepreneurship?

Jürgen Schmied, CEO and Co-Founder of GATTAquant, will give you first hand insights into the challenges and solutions of starting a high-tech company.

GATTAquant is a startup company which was founded in 2014 by a team of young researchers at the Technical University of Braunschweig / department Nanobiosciences. It develops innovative nanorulers for the field of optical microscopy.

Host: Ulrike Böhm - PhD / Postdoc Community
